Original Copy is a profound, stately and composed wine. Blue and red fruits prevail on the nose, with hints of underbrush, spearmint and eucalyptus, leading to flavors of dark chocolate covered blueberries, graphite and tart cranberry. The core of acidity is supported by sustained, youthful tannins which march down the blackberry-dominated palate in a wide column. Cellar 2028-2034.

Aromatics of cherry preserves, crimini mushrooms, beef jerky and worn leather lead you to a palate of hibiscus and rosemary. The classic notes of rose petals, red berries and sweet cola are bookended by funkier elements of newly disturbed forest floor and tart, salt water taffy that merge into a long and reaching finish. Cellar 2027-2029.

Paso Robles

A kaleidoscope of aromas greets you - rhubarb pie, toasted sagebrush, pomegranate, sun-dried tomatoes, lavender and sweet cherries. The impressive palate brings forth tart cherry, black fruits, plum and cranberry. There is a definite herbal edge (think bay leaf) that shifts towards sweeter spice notes: anise, sandalwood and peppercorns. A silky mouthfeel and a light, pleasant tannic grip leaves you wanting to enjoy glass after glass. Cellar 2025-2027.

2019 ZINFANDEL

100% Zinfandel

Paso Robles

302 cases, bottled April 2021

Notes of ripe red fruit, clove and nutmeg baking spices blend with a slight mintiness on the nose. The palate takes shape with concentrated reduced fruit characteristics - blackberry cobbler - as well as confectionary spice notes. The fruit is carried by a focused acid beam, raising a classic black pepper note with rounded, mellow tannins. Cellar 2024-2027.
